

SHIELD GUARD HOME INSPECTIONS LLC

Professional Referrals List

These contractors are not under the Shield Guard Home Inspections LLC business name and we do not receive compensation by these companies for recommendations; this is simply to help aid in your process of finding a contractor. You may find your own specialist at any point and time. Feel free to ask these contractors for their references of past clients. Please note that some contractors may perform free estimates while others may charge a fee. The services that the contractors provide do not reflect the services that Shield Guard Home Inspections LLC provides, and we are not responsible for any complaints or issues had. If you have any problems with any contractor, please call them directly as we will not call them for you.

Please perform due diligence and consult with at least 3 contractors that you see fit prior to hiring!
